

PJS Portland Jazz Singers Revue

When you sit down to enjoy the Portland Jazz Singers Revue, you can expect "variety"-- Gershwin to Frishberg; "talent" from a stellar collection of headliners singing solo, duet, trio, vignette and large ensemble combinations, and top Northwest instrumentalists; "excitement" as you are taken from Tin Pan Alley to the bright lights of Broadway; smoky solos, lively classic jazz standards, straight out of the Great American Songbook; and musical surprises that will have you gleefully wondering, "Wow! What next?" You'll hear old favorites and discover some brand new ones – from hot Brazilian jazz to steamy torch songs, bebop to Berlin – you'll find yourself on a musical journey you won't want to end.

"The Portland Jazz Singers Revue performed their special kind of vocal magic on New Year's Eve weekend for our first, Holiday Jazz Party. The audience was thoroughly delighted with the wonderful variety of talent on display."

Frank Geltner

Executive Director of the Newport Performing Arts Center

"Loved it . . . I didn't want it to end."

Newport fan

"Talk about getting your money's worth!"

Steve Kullowatz

Clubscene Writer, Jazz Society of Oregon

"Astonishingly entertaining but watch-out there may be a genius performance or two."

Thara Memory

"Under the leadership of Mitzi Zilka, The Portland Jazz Singers Revue puts on a show where each act is unique, diverse and swinging."

George Fendel

KMHD Radio DJ; Jazz Society of Oregon - Jazz Critic
